

Andrew's Stage Intro

Raise your hand if you've ever seen Cirque Du Soleil.

The world of circus features the absolute pinnacle of human ability - both in individual skills and in team dynamics.

But is that standard of performance reserved only for elite athletes? Or can ordinary people like you and I learn to work at that level?

Our next speaker has built his career answering that question.

Andrew Giordano has trained tens of thousands of people, led teams in high-pressure environments, and written extensively on performance psychology.

He's also someone who has spent years performing under real pressure—setting multiple world records in circus arts and working with teams in real life-and-death scenarios.

Today, he works with organizations to create teams that don't need to be managed... because they lead themselves, and they LOVE it!

And he does it in a way that you probably haven't seen before.

Please welcome...
Andrew Giordano.
